SUBJECT: Policy for Personnel Investigation after Change in Marital Status

I. The Problem:

1. The enclosed memorandum from the Chief, Requirements Branch, points out an apparent inconsistency in current CIG policies relating to the security clearances of employees: i.e., while investigation is made of the spouse of an employee who marries after entering CIG service.

2. The effect of this apparent inconsistency should be examined and, if current CIG policies are found defective, appropriate amendment should be made.

II. Directive.

3. a. The Security Branch will study this problem and submit a report to this office, with a draft of any OCD act recommended.

b. Suspense date for progress check will be 20 April.
